

Mr. Jesus Manuel Rodriguez

December 25, 1949 - April 5, 2020

Jesus Manuel Rodriguez, 70, of Yonkers, New York, known to family and friends as Chuito, was welcomed into the gates of Heaven unexpectedly on April 5th, 2020 at Lawrence Medical Center.

Chuito was born in Caguas, Puerto Rico to Maria and Rafael on December 25th, 1949. Chuito was the third of five of siblings, Ramon, Rafael, Maria, Joaquin and Antonio.

Chuito worked very hard for many years to support and provide for his large family as a Butcher. He loved and enjoyed camping in his RV trailer, taking family vacations, hunting, shooting at the range with his children, traveling with his wife, playing lotto and cooking for huge family gatherings. But most importantly, Chuito's love for his huge FAMILY was unconditional.

Chuito is survived by his wife Margarita of over 30 years and his 12 children who will forever all hold a special place in his heart, Jose, Jesus Jr, Hector, Victor, Madeline, Jesus III, Robert, Carlos, Nydia, Alma, Edward and Coqui. He is also survived by 28 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren. Chuito is pre-deceased by his Parents and his brother's Antonio and Rafael.

The Rodriguez Family lost a Rock, a Giant, a Hero and they would like to thank everyone for their overwhelming love and support during this difficult and unexpected time.

A Memorial Service to Honor Jesus Manuel Rodriguez will be held at a later date.

*Due to COVID19 New York State Regulations and Laws have prohibited Flower Shops from being opened. We thank you for your thoughts and generosity during this difficult time but please do not attempt to purchase flowers. A Memorial Wake Service will be done in Honor of Jesus Manuel Rodriguez at a later date and announced by the Rodriguez Family. We Thank You Again ♡

“ I want to write you a letter. I need to. I want you to know that just because I don't speak of you, haven't wrote on social media and I block out all the memories I have, it doesn't mean I didn't love you. I love you so much, too too too much, and I can't bear to acknowledge the truth. I can't talk about it. I can't even write it. It's supposed to be in the title of the letter but I sit here and it just won't come out. I miss you so much. I am broken and torn. I want my daddy back. I want that big strong happy man to come back through that door and wrap me all up again in your arms. I can't bear the thought of not having you in my life. In the lives of your grandchildren who adored you. I can't get my head around the fact that you were taken from us unexpectedly and without warning. My world caved in with one short, incomprehensible phone call. You'd have been proud of how fast I got to the hospital though! My car does 120mph easy. Who knew. The last thing I said to you was, "Papi, I love you and you better have a mask and gloves on, this Corona is out getting everyone". And you replied, "Yo se mi amor, ese Corona que se vaja pal carajo" and we laughed. I'd give anything and everything to have one more phone call, one more laugh, one more hug, one more kiss from you. I will continue to make you proud and continue to look over our Family. Family was important to you and that you instilled within me. Until we meet again, Your loca forever always, Tatita (Nydia)

My deepest condolences to you and your family. I knew how much you cared and loved your father. Some things in life are unexplainable but these are situations that unfortunately we have to deal with. I'm here for you always
